

With just over six weeks to go until the Cindy Mackenzie Breast Cancer Foundation's Annual Black Tie Gala this super-swish event has become one of the hottest tickets in town.

The Cindy Mackenzie Breast Cancer Foundation (cmbcf) along with their major sponsors the Hyatt Regency Coolum, Lend Lease, Staging Connections, dtb! Advertising and Shanghai Sally are in full swing preparing for the Sunshine Coast's Night of Nights, Hot Dice, Shanghai Nights being held at the Hyatt Regency Coolum on Saturday, May 14, 2011.

Prominent and entertaining local radio identities Todd & Sami from Hot 91.1 will host this year's event with delightful television personality Sofie Formica. Adding to the night's star-struck tone will be Matt Poole and Candice Falzon Australian surf lifesaving champions as well as legendary NSW cricket Coach Barry Davison and his wife Sandra.

In a nod to the golden era of Shanghai, The Pavilion at the Hyatt Regency Coolum will be transformed into a modern and alluring interpretation of China's most exciting and vibrant city. A lavish evening of live entertainment and dancing, high-rollers casino, raffles, auctions, cocktail and champagne bars, delicious food and fabulous fun is promised. Tickets $195 per person includes all food and beverage. A highlight of this year's auction is a "Sydney 2012 New Year Events Spectacular" experience for four people.

Guests who purchase tickets before Friday, April 15, 2011, will have a chance to win a weekend at the luxurious Hyatt Regency Sanctuary Cove. Book your tickets online at www.cmbcf.com.au or phone 1300 55 77 10.

All funds raised at the Gala will assist the Foundation in their efforts to alleviate the suffering of breast cancer patients on the Sunshine Coast.

Each year the Sunshine Coast Daily supports local community causes to the tune of more than $1 million.
